General Hancock and the New York Merchants.

The Irish-American Republican Convention.

Railroad Accident Near Lafayette.

A Missouri Ravisher Lynched.

Robbery of the Treasury Department.

GENERAL HANCOCK WAITED UPON BY A DELEGATION OF SHIPPERS.

New York, Sept. 27.—A delegation of fifteen gentlemen connected with the shipping interest of this city went to Governor's Island this morning to wait on Hancock in order to present an address and offer him their co-operation and support during the coming campaign. In reply to the address General Hancock said: "I am very highly honored by being waited upon to-day by representatives of the various branches of the shipping interest. I am very glad to receive this address which you now present me. I am much pleased at your visit, if it only be that it has shown me the details of an organization that I was not previously familiar with. I will not be able to say much to-day, as I have a cold and am very hoarse. I was fearful yesterday that I would not be able to meet this delegation to-day in consequence of indisposition. I am very glad that I have been able to meet you." The General was then introduced to the gentlemen composing the delegation.

THE IRISH-AMERICAN REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

Saratoga, September 27.—The Irish-American Republican convention met to-day, John L. Henning, temporary chairman. Various committees were appointed. Recess.

In the afternoon a permanent organization was effected.

The platform of principles indorses in its entirety the platform of the National Republican convention, promulgated at Chicago in June last. The members of the State Committee were instructed to enroll all Irish-American Republican voters in the respective Assembly districts. Speeches were then made and the convention adjourned.

The platform contains this passage: "The Republican party, in enforcing protection for American industry, is entitled to the gratitude and earnest support of every Irish American in the land, as no people have greater reason to dread the evil which the Democratic doctrine of free trade, if once adopted, would bring upon themselves and their families. In this connection, the Irish-American citizens, without regard to party, are earnestly implored to consider, calmly and carefully, this vital question, remembering that at the present hour agents of England are traveling throughout the Western States, circulating speciously written documents, and expending British gold, in their desperate efforts to secure the election of a Democratic President, pledged to enforce a tariff for revenue only, and which, if accomplished, will enable the party to flood our markets with the products of pauper labor, and will compel American workmen to engage in competition with ill-fed, ill-clad and poorly paid laborers of Europe."

PREPARING FOR THE CONVENTION.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Nearly all the delegates to the State Convention which meets to-morrow are here. The State Committee has chosen Rufus W. Peckham, of Albany, for Chairman of the Convention, and adopted a resolution recommending that the Convention add the following persons to the State Committee: Augustus Schell, John Kelly and Edward Kearney, of New York;

Erastus Corning, of Albany, and William Purcell, of Rochester. All except Purcell opposed Robinson's election last fall.

NOMINATED FOR CONGRESS.

St. Louis, Sept. 27.—The Democrats of the Second district, this city, nominated Hon. Thomas Allen for Congress by acclamation this morning.

Chicago, Sept. 27.—The Greenbackers in the Second district nominated Charles G. Dixon for Congress.

THE Y. M. C. A.—Railroad Accident.

Lafayette, Ind., Sept. 27.—The delegates to the State Convention of the Y. M. C. A. returned to their homes to-day. The session is regarded as a success. Twenty-six associations were represented by 123 delegates. The association adopted for the year to come the motto, "Better work, and more of it, in every part of our field of labor."

Henry T. Sample, President of the Tippecanoe Agricultural Association and member of the State Board of Agriculture, left this morning for Indianapolis to attend the State Fair.

One of the coaches attached to the 1:15 accommodation train going west this morning jumped the track at the entrance of the river bridge, at the foot of South street depot. The coach laid diagonally across the track, and could not be gotten off for several hours.

Rev. L. M. Schofield left this morning for California, where he enters upon a new field of labor. His congregation of the First Presbyterian church regret his departure, as he was quite popular.

SPORTING NEWS.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 27.—This was the first day of the regular fall meeting of the Jockey Club.

The first race was for the Blue Grass stake, for two-year fillies, $50 entrance, half forfeit, with $40 added, of which $100 is to go to the second—a dash of three-quarters of a mile: Lucy May, first; Minnie C., second; Farrell, third. Time—1:18 1/2. The second race was for the St. Leger stakes, for three-year-olds, $100 entrance, $50 forfeit, with $1,000 added, of which $200 goes to the second—a dash of two miles. Luke Blackburn and Kincaid were the only starters: the former won with ease. Time—3:42. The third race was for an Association purse of $300, of which $50 is to the second horse—mile heats.

The track was very heavy.

A Ravisher Lynched.

St. Louis, Sept. 27.—The Republican's special from Plattsburg, Mo., says: "While Mrs. Winn, wife of Benjamin Winn, a young lady of refinement and high social position, was returning home on horseback, from a visit to friends near Grayson yesterday, she was seized by a man, who wrapped her riding habit tightly around her head, dragged her into a ravine near by, and brutally ravished her. A party of neighbors immediately started in pursuit of the fiend, overtook and hung him on the spot. The ravisher proved to be a mulatto, a married man, and a laborer on Winn's farm."

A Change of Base.

Plymouth, Sept. 27.—The upper portion of Plymouth Rock, that has laid for forty-six years in front of Pilgrim Hall, and been separated from the original piece for 106 years, was to-day reunited with the main part of the rock. The removal took place quietly with no public demonstration, and the separated piece lies under a canopy in its original position.

Robbery.

Fairmount, Ind., Sept. 27.—Owen Scott, of this place, stole about $100 worth of goods, etc., from Sam Wilson, yesterday, and jumped the country. Officers are close on him at this writing.

The Robbery at the Treasury Department.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 27.—The Second Auditor of the Treasury has written Secretary Sherman on the subject of the safe robbery. He says: "In reply to your oral inquiry of this morning, I have the honor to report, that in December last, it was discovered that $4,740 in money and bonds, including interest, were missing from the safe of this office. A thorough investigation established the fact that the funds had been abstracted by Charles F. Herring, Deputy Auditor, who died on November 29, 1879.—There is no evidence that a single dollar of the missing funds belonged to deceased soldiers, on the contrary, the bulk of it consisted of bonds taken from the soldiers at draft rendezvous in 1864 and 1865, as security against their desertion." It is also said, that as neither the money nor bonds had been called for, the soldiers from whom they were taken became bounty jumpers.

Forging a Railroad Pass.

Seymour, Ind., Sept. 27.—Charles Falbush was before Esquire M. S. Reeves this afternoon, charged with forging a pass on the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad from this city to North Vernon, a distance of fifteen miles, bearing date September 26, 1880. He denied it at first, but finally admitted writing it, but denied signing it. The Court adjudged him guilty, and put his bond at $200 to appear at the Circuit Court, failing to give which he was sent to jail.

A Serious Railroad Accident.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 27.—A special train from Sacramento with the First Regiment of National Guards returning from the State fair, left the track on the Oakland wharf last night owing to a misplaced switch. The engine and tender went into the bay. The engineer, William Brown, stuck to the lever of the air brake and went down with the engine. The fireman was rescued. A number of passengers were bruised, but not seriously hurt.

A Sleek Robbery.

Cincinnati, Sept. 27.—Wm. Sly, of Nicholasville, Clermont county, Ohio, came to this city to-day and exchanged $3,500 of 4 per cent. bonds for gold, putting the gold in his valise. On the cars, on his way home, he found his valise exchanged for one containing three bricks. There is no clue to the robber.

Serious Accident.

Marion, Ind., Sept. 27.—Edward Cox, an employee of Case & Co.'s saw mill, while unloading heavy lumber this morning, had his left leg broken by several of the pieces of lumber falling on to him.

A Special Train.

To accommodate parties desiring to attend the Friends Meeting, now being held at Richmond, will leave the South depot at 5:30 a. m., Sunday, Oct. 3d, arriving at Richmond at 9:40 a. m. Returning, leave Richmond at 5:30 p. m. and arrive at Fort Wayne at 9:40 p. m. Special rates will be given. Sept. 28-5t.

Attention, Ninth Ward.

To the Democrats of the 9th ward—You are earnestly requested to meet at our headquarters at 6:30 o'clock this evening, and march with us in the grand parade. Let every Democrat turn out.

By order of the president,
CHAS. HOFFMAN, Pres.
ED. BASHILLER, Sec'y.

A boy whose name could not be learned, was run over by a wagon at the corner of Barr and Maine streets, last night, but was not seriously injured.

To-day is the first time in many years that this city has been honored with the presence of three major-generals at one time.

Tickets for the Masonic Ball can be purchased from the following persons at their places of business: H. N. Ward, Hon. Peter K. S. H. Shoaf, Isaac Trentman, George R. Bowen, S. D. Lombard and J. C. Wall.

LATEST CITY NEWS.

The cakery is full of 'em. The grocers came out in style. The air was filled with music to-day.

McDonald did not show up last night. The weather came around all right after all.

The undertakers are kept pretty busy of late. The south depot addition is ready for occupancy.

There was a largely attended market this morning. The market receipts this morning amounted to $430.

The Commissioners will be in session again next week. Two weeks from to-day will settle the business in Indiana.

Hon. Wm. Fleming is in town to-day attending the rally. There is an immense sale of tickets for the McDonald concert.

Mrs. S. Arantz, of Arcola, is visiting her parents in this city. Some resident of West Lewis street is after the Board of Health.

The exact net receipts of the fair have not yet been ascertained. Our business men are unanimous in the wish that the campaign was over.

The Republicans of the Second ward will meet in Burgess Hall to-night. The Garfield boys were about the only audience Judge Tay or had last night.

Ortman displays his dearly bought prize in front of his store on Clinton street. W. P. Sheehan and family returned home from Perryville, O., yesterday evening.

Due notice of the funeral of the late Robert Lowry, jr., will be given to-morrow. There will be a pole raised near Challenger's, on the Maumee pike road, to-night.

George O'Neil, for being drunk and disorderly, was fined $5 by Judge Pratt this morning. The Republicans are vainly endeavoring to get up a demonstration of some kind in this city.

The Masons of this city will soon give a grand ball. Great preparations are now being made. The City band did not go to Kendallville last night, the Gazette to the contrary notwithstanding.

Frank T. Waring, candidate for secretary of State on the Greenback ticket, is in the city to-day. Mike Kelly and a horse that displayed great symmetry of bone, were going around town to-day.

Notwithstanding the exhilarating effect that a celebration like the one of to-day has, there was very little drunkenness visible on the streets. The Gazette tells of a harnessmaker named Miller, residing in this city, who offers to lower the best time yet made in the walking business in this country.

W. W. Ashold and bride have returned from Cleveland, and are quartered at the Hanna house. The SENTINEL extends its congratulations to the happy couple.

Should Weisenberger die there will be another murder trial. The Myers murder was no more brutal than Weisenberger's, should the latter's injuries prove fatal.

Frank Falker will not leave the city as heretofore stated, as the negotiations for the Logansport enterprise have fallen through. Had he left, it was Marshal Diehl's intention to have Jesse Patton succeed him as deputy marshal.

The Pittsburgh company has peremptorily refused to allow any of its employees to take part in any political demonstrations. The issuance of this order had the effect of causing a number of the shopmen to quit work yesterday.

Emanuel Fox was bounced from the Kendallville excursion train last evening. While they were attempting to put him off he cut an unknown man quite severely in the shoulder.

Fourth Ward.

The Democratic voters of the 4th ward will meet this evening at 6 o'clock, at the corner of Washington and Fulton streets, the old Temperance church, to participate in the grand torchlight procession. By order of JOHN HAMILTON, Captain.

Dr. S. Clay Todd

Consultations free. Medicines furnished. Offices, No. 77 Calhoun street, up stairs, Fort Wayne, Indiana.

On Thursday evening General C. S. Cameron, and Hon. M. V. C. Spencer addressed a very large gathering of Democrats at Lagro. The speeches were enthusiastically received, and it may be put down as a certain fact that Messrs. Cameron and Spencer's visit to Lagro will make its influence felt in favor of Democracy on the 12th of October.—Wabash Courier.

A. J. Tribolet, Wm. Mason and Thomas Blackburn, of Bluffton, are in the city.

The railroads are doing an immense business at present. Greenbaum looked gorgeous in his military uniform.

The Court House steeple was used by a large crowd for the purpose of witnessing the procession.

A Little Boy Shoots His Playfellow.

William Myers, a colored boy, thirteen years old, living with his uncle, Charles Wilson, on Lowell street, near Wood, was shot in the face yesterday afternoon by Joseph Johnson, another colored lad of about the same age, who lives with his step-father, John Theodore Rose, in a small tenement house in what is known as "Park Row," a short distance west of Swede street, between Elm and Beech, on the property of Mr. Henry Freedley, on the site of the old skating rink.

Two little boys, so it appears, gathered some walnuts on Tuesday afternoon, and met the following day at Johnson's house for the purpose of dividing the nuts. While thus engaged in the yard back of the house they quarreled, and a war of words ensued, though no blows were struck. Failing to come to terms, "Josie" bit upon a novel plan to settle the difficulty. He climbed up on a porch roof and through the window of the second story of his step-father's house into a room occupied by John Whitlock, a colored man boarding with Mr. Rose, who was absent at the time and had locked the room of his apartment.

A few minutes after young Johnson appeared at the open window with a double-barrel shot-gun in hand. Pointing the weapon at Myers, who was standing in the yard, Joseph dumfounded his companion with the startling assertion, "I'm going to shoot you." "Don't point that at me," cried the frightened little black boy, but his words were not heeded, and "bang" went the gun. "I'm shot—you did it on purpose," exclaimed the little fellow below, as he sank to the ground, his face riddled with shot and blood streaming from his wounds.

The neighbors who heard the report of the gun rushed to the spot and found the victim lying on the ground weltering in his own blood, and seemingly in a dying condition. He was carried to the home of his uncle, Chas. Wilson, where he rallied somewhat. Dr. J. K. Weaver, who had been summoned, arrived soon after, and upon making an examination of the boy's wounds, found that the right side of his face, neck and head had been literally sprinkled with shot, which had penetrated the flesh to a considerable distance. The shot are of medium size, and as the unfortunate lad's head and face are considerably swollen, Dr. Weaver deemed it advisable not to attempt to dislodge them for the present. Whether or not they have entered any vital parts is not known, but it is feared that the sight of the right eye is entirely destroyed.

Young Johnson regrets the shooting but can give no satisfactory account of the lamentable affair. That he committed the rash act in a moment of anger, he does not deny. Many believe that he was prompted either by motives of pure devilry or a desire to learn how to shoot off a gun. Mr. Whitlock, the owner of the weapon which caused the mischief, tells the same old story—he didn't know it was loaded.

The wounded lad rested well though he suffered considerable pain. From present appearances there are fair hopes of his life being saved.

A Woman Murdered While Nursing Her Infant Child.

A most brutal murder was committed at Litchfield, Illinois, Wednesday evening. Mrs. Gabriella Carter, a negro woman, was sitting in her home in company with her mother and a neighbor, and suckling her infant, when the contents of a shot gun crashed through an opposite window and entered her head. She fell dead at her mother's feet. The latter gave the alarm, which spread quickly and was carried to the African M. E. church, where a congregation was assembled. Circumstances appeared to point to Sybil Carter, husband of the murdered woman.

He made his appearance about an hour after the terrible deed was committed, and expressed great astonishment and grief at finding his wife dead. This did not allay the suspicion of the colored people, who were so infuriated that had he not been guarded by white men (to prevent the escape as well as to protect him) he would have been lynched on the spot. Carter is a full-blooded negro, of about forty years of age, and was, prior to the war, a slave in the South. His wife was about twenty-six years old, and was born in Indiana. It was Carter who was shot at just a month ago by another colored man, who accused him of trying to seduce his daughter.

If extensive and open frauds will carry an election, Republicans in Indiana will carry the State in October, for they intend to perpetrate them.

It is not positively known whether those "enthusiastic Republicans" who were put to sleep by the mournful efforts of the speakers at the Court House fizzle on Saturday night have awaked. It was a bad give away for the average Republican.

An Extract from Mace Long's New Book on Fallen Women.

Not one good word can be said of the seductress; there is not an excuse that human benevolence can offer for him. The housebreaker, the highwayman, the midnight assassin, are each and all far better than he—the vampire of society, the personification of villainy, the embodiment of lust and pollution, a moving, walking, breathing lie, with a soul blacker than the smutted walls of the infernal regions. His thoughts by day should be thoughts of woe, his dreams by night dreams of despair. The wrongs he has inflicted on others should rise up out of the graves of his victims and haunt his every step, and continually whisper in his ears death and judgment; at night they should gather about his couch, and, with the wail of a lost soul, wave the torch of hell around his bed, until his affrighted spirit would cry aloud for mercy, to be forgiven, and then for death.

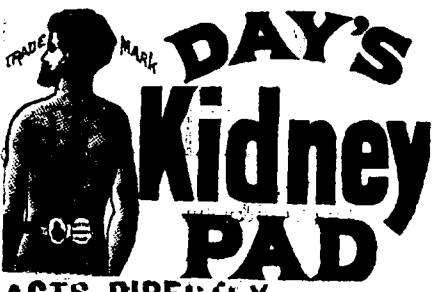

"Had I a girl of sixteen, and a man of thirty should gain her love and then seduce her, his life should pay the debt of his crime; and when death came to me, in the last sad moments, I would not say with trembling, faltering lips, 'God forgive me, for I have taken human life, and shuddering over the cold waters that roll between the shores of time and eternity, cross the dark river hopeless with fear; no! I would say in a firmer, calmer voice, 'Lord bless me, I killed the wretch that ruined my child; then I would kiss the lips of that wronged child, and draw my last breath with a conscious pride that I had done my duty, and calmly and unfalteringly launch out on the swelling flood, and sweep through the gloom of death from the night of time and its wrongs to the bursting refulgence of eternity and its justice, and there risk my case. Methinks I would hear, 'well done, thou good and faithful servant; thou has been faithful over a few things, wait here for the coming of thy child.'"

"I once met a man that had slain the seducer of his innocent daughter, and as I shook his hand with the warmest grasp of friendship, I took off my hat to do him especial honor for his noble deed. The state should give that man a golden medal, with engraven upon it, 'Hero' and when he dies should build him a monument, and upon it place a majestic lion, by his side a torn and bleeding lamb, and near by a dead tiger."

Republican Outrages.

To the Editor of the SENTINEL: On Saturday last at my residence in Washington township, this county, five and one-half miles from Fort Wayne, on the Goshen road, after getting through with threshing my grain, we raised a hickory pole, my neighbors, Democrats and Republicans, assisting, and we all had a social, jolly time. But some four or five Republicans came to my home about midnight and with an inch and a half augur and hand-saw cut the pole down. It was a cowardly, dastardly act, and so regarded by all who are acquainted with the circumstances, and Republicans have lost votes in this part of the township. We intend to raise another pole as soon as we can get some Democratic speakers from the city and will see that Republicans will let it stand. Yours, T. F. RACINE.

ing season, met last evening at the residence of Mr. Harry Eckles.

McDonald did not lecture at the Grand Opera House last evening,
owing to the number of unoccupied
benches that filled the auditorium.

It is said that an effort will be made to recover damages from the railroad company for Miss Brandenburg's death. The cars which struck her were being switched by means of a pole, which is against the law.

A letter from Winfield S. Hancock was received by ex-Mayor Randall yesterday, to the effect that owing to numerous engagements he could not attend the rally in this city to-day.
The letter was written by Gen. Hancock himself.

A woman whose name could not be learned, was circulating in the vicini-ued.

Has Solomon Bash, the Republican candidate for Sheriff has abandoned the race and gone to Denver, Colorado, for his health?

Judge Taylor's school-boy effort at the Rink last night disgusted his best friends, who have now lost all confidence in his ability to properly represent the people of this district in Congress.

Frank Cosgrove, who is a representative of the working classes, is daily becoming more popular with the masses and will be elected Sheriff of Allen county by a much larger majority than any candidate during the past twenty years.

Yesterday noon as Sophia Moss-heimer, residing with her parents at 84 East Wayne street, was going home from school she was struck by Moel-lering, the grocer's, delivery wagon,
on the corner of Washington and Lafayette streets, and quite seriously injured.

Frank Cosgrove, the Democratic candidate for Sheriff, is having a walk-
over for the office, his opponent, Sol Bash, on the Republican ticket, having virtually given up the contest and left for Colorado, where he intends to spend a few months for health and recreation.

The Gazette states that the SENTI-NEL of last evening contained no programme of local matter. Owing to a rush of local matter the programme had to be placed on the inside of the paper which is doubtless the reason that it escaped the eagle eye of the Gazette hawk.

The attorneys of Burt the Burlager robber, just as they imagined their case won in the criminal court yesterday had the wind knocked out of their sails by the appearance of Geo.
Morgan who was Burt's accomplice in the robbery and who was sentenced about one year ago for the crime. He was sent here from Michigan City
at the request of prosecutor Hench.

Judge Taylor contrived the scheme of getting up a political "love feast" at the Academy, a short time ago, and last night was set for holding the racket, but there was an aching void inside the building. Judge Taylor finally got up and spoke, in his own estimation, the best piece yet delivered in this city, to empty chairs.
The strain must have been terrible on the unfortunate chairs.

A Hancock and English pole was raised on the farm of our popular County Commissioner, Mr. Frank Gladio, last Saturday afternoon. A crowd of about two hundred were present, and every one signified their intention of voting the whole Democratic ticket from top to bottom. The meeting was addressed by J. G. Stratton and Dr. McKendry. The meeting was a happy gathering, and every one present seemed happy.

DEMOCRACY'S DAY.

A Most Imposing Celebration.

Five Thousand People on Horseback.

The Largest Procession Ever
Formed in This City.

Ruraldom Out in Force.

The morning broke cloudy and breezy. The atmosphere was damp and disagreeable, and those who had hoped that last night's drizzling rain would cease and the sun come warmly out began to grow nervous, and venture expressions to their neighbors to the effect that the rally would not be a success. But about eight o'clock patches of blue sky became visible and the hopes of those who had almost given up, began to raise and finally,
when the sun came out warm
and cheery it produced and disseminated a feeling of general satisfaction.

The hour set for the commencement of exercises was 9 o'clock, but long before that hour the streets in all parts of the city were thronged with people, so as to render them impassable, and it was only by good, hard pushing that one could get through the packed streets. Pedestrians soon realized that walking and elbowing did not produce a very pleasant sensation and gave up. At 9 o'clock the procession began to form, the head resting on Perry street, near Calhoun, facing west.

Owing to the immense number, it was a difficult task to get everything in shape, but Colonel Zollinger and his efficient aides finally succeeded in getting the line formed, and, at precisely 11 o'clock the column began to move.

The order of procession was as follows:

City Band.
Mounted police, headed by Capt.
Smith.

Butchers.
Delegations from the various townships in wagons and on horseback.

Trade wagons.
Citizens on horse back.

Speakers of the day.
Citizens in carriages.

At different places in the procession were bands of music, and many of the visiting delegations were accompanied by bands, and in fact every instrument calculated to produce sound, was brought into requisition and the result was amazing.

The streets on which the procession moved were rendered almost impassable by the presence of a stubborn throng, each one in it thinking that he or she had the best right to occupy a good place of view.

The enthusiasm was unbounded throughout and the air was filled with shouts and exclamations of all kinds.
One large wagon filled with young ladies dressed in white attracted considerable attention in the procession, and the smiles of the giddy maidens caused the hearts of those they deigned to smile on to jump with excitement.

THE DECORATIONS.

The various business houses on the principal streets were all handsomely decorated with, few exceptions, and the entire city wore a gala appearance. It is impossible in the limited space at our disposal to-day to give any adequate description of the affair in its entirety, but we shall further notice it to-morrow.

AT THE FAIR GROUNDS.

After the line of march previously laid down had been followed, the column headed for the Fair grounds, where preparations were made to entertain the throng. Speech-making was the principal part of the programme, and among the speakers were Generals McDonald, Sigel and Slocum. As we go to press the exercises are in progress, and an overwhelming crowd is in attendance.
Full particulars will be given tomorrow.

To night a grand torchlight procession will be held, in which all the visiting delegations will take part.
The First Voters, under the command of Colonel Edgerton, will be in the procession, and it undoubtedly will be the grandest affair of the kind ever witnessed in this city. Everybody turn out.
